

FIABCI-USA Hawaii Council presents...

The Global Market

Wednesday, September 27, 2017
Waialae Country Club
8:30 a.m. Check-in
9:00 a.m.– 2:00 p.m. Program

Once again FIABCI-Hawaii hosts an array of special guest speakers who will discuss important information to help you understand today's global market.

“International Property Market Risk”

Bill Endsley, Principal consultant for World Citizen Consulting and Secretary General of FIABCI-USA

Efficient and transparent property markets are supported by an extensive network of institutions. This course will examine the development cycle of property markets from frontier markets just exiting crisis to developed markets that enjoy political and monetary stability. The main focus of the course will be current emerging markets that represent potential higher returns for opportunistic investors. The International Property

Market Scorecard methodology will be used to examine the development of both public and private institutions necessary for a country to progress along the road to property market improvement and increased direct foreign investment.

“Alternative Investments for International Investors in the U.S.”

Brian T. McKechnie, ChFC, Sr. Regional Vice President of AXA Advisors, LLC

“The ‘Market’ in Trump’s Administration”

AXA Advisors, LLC panel - the economy is in uncharted time... the market is not reacting to what conventional markets say it should. What is the effect of current policies on the Global Market? Where is it going?
