

RR 225- FHA Addendum

1.		Simple and precise is excellent!
2.		I don't see this to be in the best interest of everyone. Required certification & licensing will only make those that are good at seeing home defects to take classes, which who has time for that when they need to work due to high cost of living. The money needed for licensing will now increase the cost of the services to cover that.
3.		I think they should be certified and licensed and have some schooling background
